W05 – Student ERD Examples

CASE STUDY: Reinforce relational database concepts by sharing what you designed with other students.

Record video under 5 minutes showing what website your chose and for your homework last week and explaining the ERD you created from that website. Talk about the entities, attributes and relationships that you created and why.

Place this in a discussion board and comment on at least two other videos.